

The Reading Café

When is it?

Every Wednesday.

Where is it?

Please come in through the infant hall doors.

What time does it start?

It starts at 2:30pm.

What is the focus?

To develop children's love for stories and your understanding of reading and what it might look like in younger children.

What is the loyalty card?

Every time you attend a session you will receive a stamp. Once you have collected six stamps on your loyalty card you will be able to choose a book from a selection.

Do I have to attend every session?

No, just attend the sessions that you can. You are more than welcome to come every week though.

If you have any more questions, please do not hesitate to speak to a member of the EYFS team.

