To Parents / Carers of
Children in Year 1

Dear Parents and Carers,

Our Christmas Nativity is less than 2 weeks away and we are working hard to learn songs, lines and actions.

The year 1 children will be the supporting choir but many of them have expressed a wish to be a star, an angel, a king, etc. We want to give the children the opportunity to be the character they've always wanted to be.

This year we are asking if parents would provide a very simple costume for their child. Unfortunately, we don't have enough costumes to dress all of the year 1 children. Your child can choose what they would like to be from the list below:

A shepherd
A sheep
An angel
A star
A donkey
A cow
An inn keeper
A king
A person who lives in Bethlehem.

WE DO NOT EXPECT EXPENSIVE SHOP BOUGHT COSTUMES. A simple head dress/mask and appropriate coloured clothes would be fine.

e.g. a mask or some ears, grey top and trousers for a donkey.

Please send the costumes in BEFORE Friday 6th December 2019.

If you have any questions or difficulty finding something please let us know by Friday 6th December.

Kind Regards

Mrs Rigg and Ms Pillow
